Rugby Life Shop is back

Our shop in Sheep Street is now open, with all Covid secure precautions and putting together its autumn stock. So, do come and have look at what there is to buy (Mon-Sat 9am-5pm).

Donations are welcome too, especially ladies' wear.

Finally, as some of our regular volunteers cannot be in the shop for family or health reasons, we are also looking for any help in store; whether in dealing with stock or serving in the shop. Just call in and have a word with Donna the manager, or her assistant.

Papal Encyclical

Fratelli Tutti/Brothers and Sisters All

As you will be aware the Holy Father has just published the third encyclical of his papacy. Fratelli Tutti is the title Pope Francis has chosen for his encyclical letter dedicated to "human fraternity" and "social friendship". In English, it can be read as 'All Brothers', 'Brethren all' or 'Brothers and sisters all'. The first words of the new 'circular letter', or encyclical as we know it, come from St Francis of Assisi.

CAFOD We would like to invite you to an online event to share with you the work of CAFOD and Missio over these last few months. CAFOD's Geoff O'Donoghue, senior International Programme leader and Fr Anthony Chantry, Missio's National Director, will discuss the challenges facing our global family in this time of pandemic and share how we are responding creatively and keeping hope alive. Please join us on Tuesday 6 October from 4-5pm for COVID-19 pandemic and the global response of the Catholic family. Please register online <https://www.bigmarker.com/cafod/missio>

This Week's Gospel Reading Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time Matthew 22:1-14

Jesus began to speak to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; [...] And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Let us seek comfort in the infinite mercy of God. This word infinite should fill our hearts with hope. The ways of the Lord are wonderful and quite beyond our imaginings.

This Week's First Reading

Isaiah 25:6-10

On this mountain the Lord Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine—the best of meats and the finest of wines. On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the sheet that covers all nations; he will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove his people's disgrace from all the earth. The Lord has spoken. In that day they will say, "Surely this is our God; we trusted in him, and he saved us. This is the Lord, we trusted in him; let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation." The hand of the Lord will rest on this mountain; but Moab will be trampled in their land as straw is trampled down in the manure.

This Week's Second Reading

Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

With the help of the One who gives me strength, there is nothing I cannot master.

Rachel's Vineyard – Healing the trauma of abortion one weekend at a time

Rachel's Vineyard has now got charity status. The team is very excited about this because we can now help more post-abortive women and men who seek support after the trauma of abortion. The retreats are a safe place where those affected by abortion can grieve and seek the healing they need in a confidential and supportive setting. Our next retreat this year is 27th-29th November.

We plan to have 4 retreats next year.

For more information either call Rachel 07734 059 080, look at the website www.rachelsvineyard.org.uk or email

Please pray for this ministry and support us in any way you can.

This Week's Gospel Acclamation

John 1:14, 12

Alleluia, alleluia! The Word was made flesh and lived among us: to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God. Alleluia!

This Week's Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 22, 23

R. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.
