

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

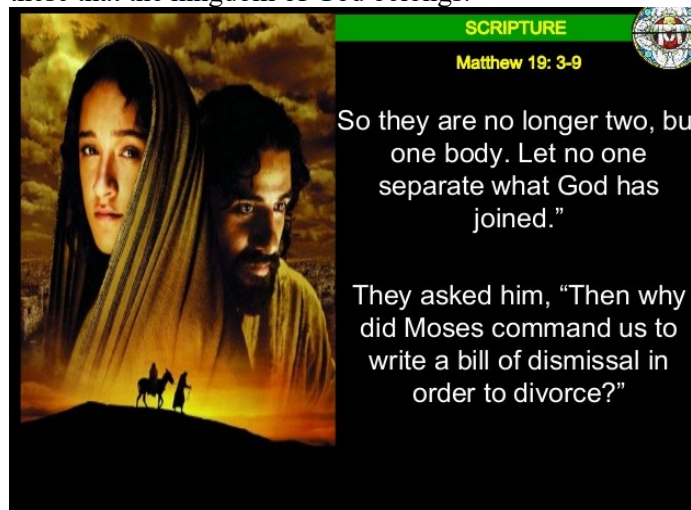

God made the Angels for the same end that He made man: to know, to love, and to obey God their Creator, and to participate in His nature, His holiness and His happiness.

Next Week's Gospel Reading
27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel – Mark 10:2-16 (Mk 10:2-12)

Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?” He answered them, “What did Moses command you?” They said, “Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.” But Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’ ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.” Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.” People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

St Marie's 500 Club: a change of direction! After a dozen years and many draws, I am standing down from running the 500 club. The new manager will be Elizabeth Burnett who has very kindly agreed to take it over as a going concern, but one which needs some new direction. Elizabeth will take over completely from the New Year, but she will contact all members and potential supporters through this newsletter shortly, so please look out for her message. Let me say a big thank-you to all who have helped and supported us over the years. In that time, the club has put around £10,000 into the good work done at St Marie's. I am sure you will continue to offer this help to Elizabeth and I hope the club will grow and flourish in the years ahead. Bless you all, Margaret Nosowska.
