

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

To pray and to know how to pray, that is, to ask from the heart not for the frivolous things of this world, but for what is necessary, the grace of fulfilling our duties of justice and charity, this is indeed the great secret. Many know the secret in theory, but fail to practice it, and so they cannot be said to know it really, not having the light and persuasion that lead to action (Antonio Rosmini)

Next Week's Gospel Reading Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time (28th January 2018)

Gospel – Mark 1:21-28

They went to Capernaum; and when the Sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

Prayer for the Parish -

Almighty God, Who governs all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of your people. Grant to our parish all things needful for its spiritual welfare and, through the guidance of Your Holy Spirit, may we be of one heart and mind in the fold of Your Holy Church. To the honour and glory of Your Name. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Vocation -

O God, you are the Lord of the harvest. We pray to you that men and women may hear the call of Christ your Son, to work in your vineyard. May they answer the call generously. May we, with them, serve you faithfully all our days so that your faithful people may grow in numbers and favour in your sight. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Church Organ – It has been quite a few years ago since we had our first recommendation for repairs on our organ, (dating back to Fr.
