

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

The Lord said, "Do not be anxious about tomorrow." Try to distance your thoughts from what the future may hold, and from the fears which such thoughts can cause. This is already a great act of virtue and of abandonment into the loving hands of our Lord. This is what constitutes the way of simplicity before God which the Scriptures so much praise.

Next Week's Gospel Reading Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (22nd July 2018)

Gospel – Mark 6:30-34

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Poll assessing the Impact of Secular Campaign Organisations- As many of you know, there exists in Britain today a number of campaign organisations (such as Humanists UK, and the National Secular Society) which seek the abolition of Catholic schools. We know of cases where these campaign groups have targeted Catholic schools. However we do not know the scale of this across all of our schools. The CES has produced a survey for all staff and governors in Catholic schools to explore the impact these organisations are having on our schools. It is very short and simple and we hope that everyone will complete it. The survey can be found here: If you
