Next Week's Gospel Reading Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Luke 23:35-43

The people stood watching, and the rulers even sneered at him. They said, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is God's Messiah, the Chosen One."
The soldiers also came up and mocked him. They offered him wine vinegar and said, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself."
There was a written notice above him, which read: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him: "Aren't you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other criminal rebuked him. "Don't you fear God," he said, "since you are under the same sentence? We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong."
Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."
Jesus answered him, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

What a great treasure it is to be able to conform to the divine Will our own will, even in the most painful situations. We can offer to God a more acceptable sacrifice during times of distress, and this will count as the greatest merit before God, which cannot be gained during times when all goes well.

Blessed Antonio Rosminii
