Next Week's Gospel Reading Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 5:13-16

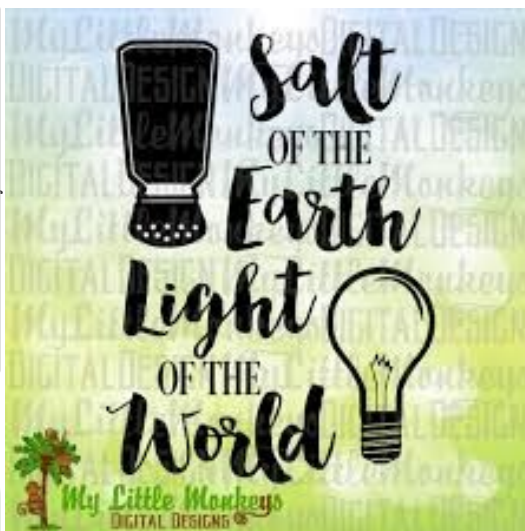

“You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

“You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

I shall confine myself to giving you only one piece of advice, and that is to make a habit of reading the New Testament, particularly the words of our Lord Jesus Christ himself, which have sweetness and infinite power.

Blessed Antonio Rosmini
