PETER AND PAUL FEAST DAY

Reopening of the Church for Private Prayer

The government has now cleared the way for churches to reopen for private prayer and we are happy that St Marie's has opened. There are still some restrictions which we need to follow.

- 1) The church is open from 11am to 1pm and from 4pm to 6pm on Monday and Thursday
- 2) The reopening is for private prayer only. Come in and pray quietly. There is no permission for attendance at Mass or for group prayer such as the Rosary.
- 3) Social distancing will be necessary. Places in church will be marked for visitors.
- 4) Stewards will be present to explain the restrictions and to guide you. As in previous weeks, Mass will still be live streamed at 10am each day. This is a very important step forward, and we look forward to seeing you in church again.

Next Week's Gospel Reading Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 11:25-30

At that time Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.

"All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

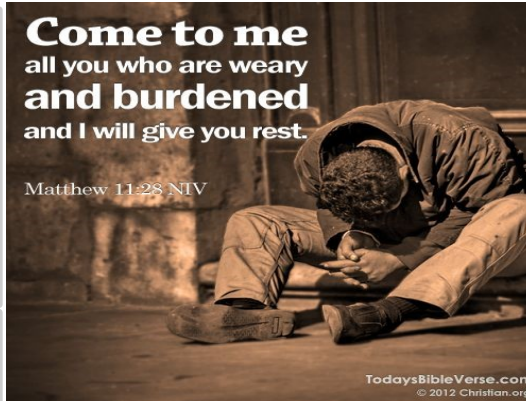

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Let God's holy law be the light of our thoughts, and the words of the gospel end our speculations, with Jesus Christ as our master, first and last.

Blessed Antonio Rosmini

Come to me
all you who are weary and burdened
and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:28 NIV

Trust Secretary
(part-time) voluntary role

The Archdiocese of Birmingham is seeking to appoint a Trust Secretary for the Birmingham Diocesan Trust, the Registered Charity (234216) through which the Catholic Church operates in the Archdiocese.

This is a newly created, demanding and challenging role; therefore we are looking for someone who wants to make a significant contribution to the mission of the Catholic Church in the Archdiocese. For a copy of the job description and details on how to apply for the position, or an informal discussion about this role please e mail Deacon David Palmer on david.palmer@rc-birmingham.org

Church Reopening Volunteers

A big thank you to all who prepared the church and all the stewards who are helping.

Church Bells

Starting last Sunday our bells will ring out after 10am online mass as our reminder to the local community that we continue to pray and remember all those affected in any way by the virus and it's consequences. Should you be aware of anyone needing any form of support, please contact Fr Shinto.

We are waiting for further details but understand that there will be two national events on the 4th and 5th July in memory of those who have lost their lives (4th) and support of all of those who have kept us going (5th). All being well, we will at least be able to ring the bells.
