This Week's Gospel Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to his disciples: 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.....'

UCM 10-AM Mass Monday 29th November- followed by coffee & a meeting in the Coach house . We would welcome at this meeting any donations of bottles & wine bags for the U C M stall at the Christmas market .

Good Bye and Thank you

On behalf of the parish I would like say thank you and good bye to Kathy Smith. Kathy has recently moved to Suffok. She has been an active member of our parish community and will be missed. Kathy was parish secretary for several years and was also involved in many other roles; organising the readers rotas, Eucharistic ministers etc. She played a vital part in setting and running of the homeless shelter and formed and arranged with a local store to collect and deliver excess food and groceries to those who were in need. I wish Kathy and her husband much happiness in their new home

Youth Invitation

The Solemnity of Chris the King has been designated as National Youth Sunday. I invite all our youth and young parishioners to join myself and the Rosminian Community in celebrating this special day at 10. November Mass Intention Cardinal Vincent has recently asked the Bishops of England and Wales to celebrate a mass in their cathedrals on Sunday 7th November for those who have died during the pandemic and for all healthcare and frontline workers who have supported our local communities during the last eighteen months. I shall be offering this mass ^{Car} in St Chad's Cathedral on that Sunday at 11.30am.
