Next Week's Gospel Reading Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time Mark 8:1-10

During those days another large crowd gathered. Since they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I have compassion for these people; they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. If I send them home hungry, they will collapse on the way, because some of them have come a long distance."

His disciples answered, "But where in this remote place can anyone get enough bread to feed them?"

"How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked. "Seven," they replied.

He told the crowd to sit down on the ground. When he had taken the seven loaves and given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to distribute to the people, and they did so. They had a few small fish as well; he gave thanks for them also and told the disciples to distribute them. The people ate and were satisfied. Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. About four thousand were present. After he had sent them away, he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the region of Dalmanutha.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

The Will of God: what a sublime phrase! What light for the person who knows and loves God! What ineffable and infinite goodness, containing all that is good! O most holy, most wise, most sublime Will of God! There is nothing good outside it, but a mere illusion of good.

To the Good People of St Marie's:

Tom and June Hargadon wish to thank all the kind people who sent us cards, emails, supportive telephone calls and offers of lifts to Walsgrave during the time of Tom's heart operation. You have been an immense comfort and support to us both during many difficult weeks and we will always remember this with gratitude.
