Thank you

Giving thanks and being appreciative of the blessing in life is a good frame of mind and a good thing to do. With this in mind there are people I would like to thank and show appreciation to, this is you, our parishioners. On behalf of Fr. Jose and I, we want you to know how much we appreciate your consistent presence and participation in our community since reopening the church and during the online streaming. I was completely shocked by your generosity and kind words last week when presented with your card and gift, I was lost for words, thank you.

To those who have contributed giving their time so freely cleaning for our Feast and Open Days, thank you! And also to those who welcomed our guests on the Open Days sharing your knowledge, kindness, bunting and cakes. It was heart-warming to see, and especially to receive the wonderful feedback, of our visitors, thank you!

Let me close by thanking you in advance for your continued active engagement in our parish. It takes all of us priests, deacons, readers, altar servers, choir, parents, children to be the complete Body of Christ. As a parish we are just beginning to comprehend the fullness and the challenge to be the parish Pope Francis envisions; as we move towards the start of the Liturgical year we will be looking for you to assume greater roles and responsibilities with respect to various parish activities. I am excited to see what the Holy Spirit has in store as we enter this new Liturgical year as I am sure there is plenty of adapting and creativity awaiting in the weeks and months ahead.

Fr. Shinto Francis Kumminiylil.

This Week's Gospel Twenty Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time Mark 9:30-37

Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him. They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them and put his arms around him and said to them 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me.....'

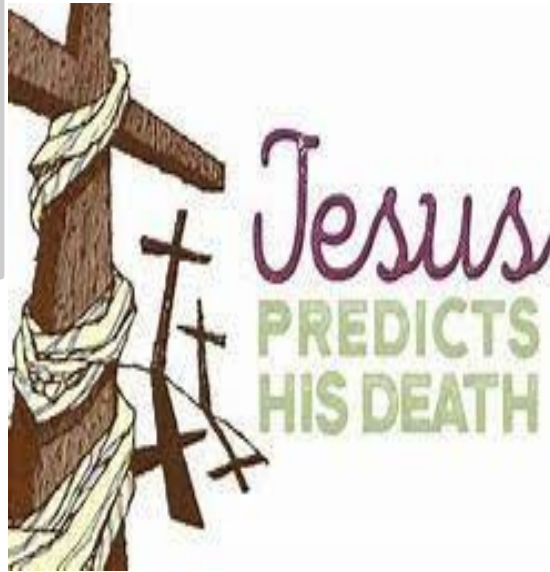

UCM Mass

Our next meeting is Monday 27th September at 10am mass followed by coffee in the CoachHouse and lunch at Cafe Roj at 12pm.

We kindly ask you to continue to be respectful, to keep a safe distance when inside the church and when coming for communion, continuing with the one way system. Please continue to use the hand sanitiser as you enter the church and face coverings are strongly recommended by the Archdiocese. When arriving you can either scan the QR Code or write your name on the sheet provided at the entrance of the church. Please remember to sanitise your hands before using the pen. We will continue with stewards on weekend Masses to assist you. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we cautiously reintroduce normalities to the parish.

Parish Skills Courses

We have been asked the question: Is there anyone in the parish willing to teach flower arranging or other skill sets, for example, art, music, dancing, knitting, sewing, gardening etc? If so please let Elizabeth Burnett know on elizabeth_burnett@icloud.com

500 Club

1st prize No 30 = £40, 2nd prize No 65 =£30, 3rd prize No 154 =£20. Cheques on their way to the lucky winners. Thank you to everyone for their continued support over the last year. As we are approaching the end of the year it would be lovely to increase our numbers for next year especially has some people have left the parish and others who supported the club for many years have sadly died. If you are interested in joining for only £12 a year please contact Elizabeth on 01788 816285 or 07513914690. This is such an easy way to contribute to the upkeep of our lovely church.

RECENTLY DIED

Joseph Lavery,
Alfie James Mercer
Julie Coyle

Sunday Collection Thank you for last Sunday's offertory collection which amounted to £1089.82

Second Collection this week is for Catholic Evangelisation/Home Missions. Please give generously.

Covid Restrictions Updates

The coronavirus has made it an especially difficult time for us all and it tries our faith and Christian friendship. With the continued threat of the virus we are aware of the vulnerability of some of our parishioners, of course all of us as human beings are delicate and vulnerable to risks that come our way. With this we have been cautious since the restrictions changed in July, we will continue to be cautious and consider those who take a more cautious approach especially those who are vulnerable. For those wishing to keep socially distant you may continue to do so towards the back of the church or in either Our Lady's Chapel or Hibberts/Sacred Heart Chapel as you will notice that we have opened some benches towards the front of the church to accommodate parishioners returning and additional celebrations.

The Sunday obligation is still lifted for the time being so please feel free to attend a weekday Mass as these Masses are usually quieter than weekends.
