

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Let us stand firm in God, without hesitation or doubt, and let us wait in faith “Hope in the Lord be strong, let your heart take courage and hope in the Lord” The Lord has no greater means of teaching us men than that of making us wait. Our great defect is excessive haste; it is a wise man who knows how to wait!

Next Week's Gospel Reading Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (15th July 2018)

Gospel – Mark 6:7-13

He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.” So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Poll assessing the Impact of Secular Campaign

Organisations- As many of you know, there exists in Britain today a number of campaign organisations (such as Humanists UK, and the National Secular Society) which seek the abolition of Catholic schools. We know of cases where these campaign groups have targeted Catholic schools however we do not know the scale of this across all of our schools. The CES has produced a survey for all staff and governors in Catholic schools to explore the impact these organisations are having on our schools. It is very short and simple and we hope that everyone will complete it. The survey can be found here: If you
