Next Week's Gospel Reading 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Luke 21:5-19

Some of his disciples were remarking about how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and with gifts dedicated to God. But Jesus said, "As for what you see here, the time will come when not one stone will be left on another; every one of them will be thrown down."
"Teacher," they asked, "when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?"
He replied: "Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is near.' Do not follow them. When you hear of wars and uprisings, do not be frightened. These things must happen first, but the end will not come right away."
Then he said to them: "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Prayer is to the spiritual life what the beating of the pulse and the drawing of the breath are to the life of the body. May He support us all the day long, till the shades lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done! Then in His mercy may He give us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last.

Saint John-Henry Newman

The Dream of Gerontius composed by Edward Elgar from the poem of St John-Henry Newman performance at Coventry Cathedral on 9th November. Coach is leaving from St Andrews Church. Also being performed in Westminster Cathedral on 15th November. Please contact Peter Beresford on 565609 for info or tickets.
