Thank you

On this Easter, I wish you all every blessings of the Risen Lord. May this Easter bring peace and joy to all our parishioners. We are able to celebrate this Easter as we used to. Thank you all for your support and kindness over the past few years. We had to go through so many restrictions during the Pandemic, still we were able to celebrate the Liturgy with restricted numbers. I would like to thank all those who made it possible for us to celebrate it this year: the Choir, those who arranged the flowers, the Altar, the Altar servers, Sacristans, readers, those who cleaned the church, and all those who were part of our community as the people of God.

Many parishioners volunteered their time for the Church and we now look to rebuild and grow as a parish community, slowly and hopefully returning to the normal practice.

There are many who were called by the Lord during the past two years and I remember them in my prayers.

This Week's Gospel Luke 24:1-12

On the first day of the week, at the first sign of dawn, they went to the tomb with the spices they had prepared. They found that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb, but on entering discovered that the body of the Lord Jesus was not there. As they stood there not knowing what to think, two men in brilliant clothes suddenly appeared at their side. Terrified, the women lowered their eyes. But the two men said to them, 'Why look among the dead for someone who is alive? He is not here; he has risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee: that the Son of Man had to be handed over into the power of sinful men and be crucified, and rise again on the third day?' And they remembered his words. When the women returned from the tomb they told all this to the Eleven and to all the others. The women were Mary of Magdala, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them also told the apostles, but this story of theirs seemed pure nonsense, and they did not believe them.....
