Winter Shelter Feeding our Homeless from December to March

Hope 4 have asked us to provide a hot lunch and a packed supper for our homeless guests from the start of December through to the end of March. (This is subject of course to whatever happens with the 'R' number.)

We anticipate having about 6 guests and I aim to have 4 volunteers each Monday providing the lunch in Hibbert's under Diocesan safety guidelines. The response from volunteers has been amazing, however, many are working and I would be grateful for a few more to share the workload so that we are not calling upon the same people each week.

If you are able to help in any of the following ways please let me know:

- Would be free from 11.30-14.30 each Monday to help in the hall
 - Unable to be in the hall but able to help provide food if needs be, this could be dropped off
 - Able to make a financial donation towards the cost of the food
- Please either give me a call on 01788 891940/07733266230 or email kathyellen.smith56@gmail.com if you would like to know more.

This Week's Gospel Reading Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time Matthew 25:1-13

The wise and foolish virgins

Jesus told this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." [...] The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Faith assures us that what is lost by our dear ones is little, a mere nothing in comparison to what they have kept. Blessed Antonio Rosmini

RECENTLY DIED Una Leach

This Week's First Reading Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom is found by those who look for her

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim. By those who love her she is readily seen, and found by those who look for her. Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them. Watch for her early and you will have no trouble; you will find her sitting at your gates. Even to think about her is understanding fully grown; be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you. She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her [...]

This Week's Responsorial Psalm Psalm 62

R. For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God

This Week's Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Do not grieve about those who have died in Jesus

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. [...]

This Week's Gospel Acclamation Mt 24:42-44
