This Week's Gospel Third Sunday of Lent Luke 13:01-09

Some people arrived and told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with that of their sacrifices. At this he said to them, 'Do you suppose these Galileans who suffered like that were greater sinners than any other Galileans? They were not, I tell you. No; but unless you repent you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen on whom the tower at Siloam fell and killed them? Do you suppose that they were more guilty than all the other people living in Jerusalem? They were not, I tell you. No; but unless you repent you will all perish as they did.'

He told this parable: 'A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it but found none. He said to the man who looked after the vineyard, "Look here, for three years now I have been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and finding none. Cut it down: why should it be taking up the ground?" "Sir," the man replied "leave it one more year and give me time to dig round it and manure it: it may bear fruit next year; if not, then you can cut it down."

Lourdes Pilgrimage 2022

Saturday 28th May-Friday 3rd June

Due to planning difficulties and a shortage of charter aircraft available on the Sunday, a decision with the pilgrimage committee has been made to amend our dates and depart a day earlier, therefore extending the pilgrimage by one night. There will be no cost implication for you as the pilgrim and the price you have paid remains the same. I am sure this will be much appreciated after having not been to Lourdes for the last two years.

Lastly, we have also taken the decision to limit the number of spaces available on the pilgrimage, please look to book as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.
